Welcome to St Mawes and the Roseland

Thank you for your interest in St Mawes and the Roseland. As residents we are fortunate to live in a beautiful place with significant environmental and heritage designations, from Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and Sites of Special Scientific Interest to Ancient Scheduled Monuments to Listed Buildings.

Along with this we have strong communities, with many events and festivals happening throughout the year.

Visitors to St Mawes and the Roseland not only get to enjoy all this coupled with a warm welcome, but also fantastic accommodation and cuisine. We look forward to welcoming you.

Julian German, Cornwall Councillor for The Roseland

It is my pleasure to welcome you to our beautiful parish of St Just in Roseland as the Chairman of the Parish Council. I have lived in St Mawes for over 60 years and have been on the Parish Council for over 30 consecutive years. I am passionate about our parish. I went to St Mawes School and am proud that my children and grandchildren have as well. I worked as a self-employed builder all my working life, in and around the Roseland area.

I love St Mawes and the rest of the Roseland; it is an amazing place to come on holiday as there is lots to see and do. You will often see me enjoying lovely walks in and around the area with my little dog as this is a hobby of mine.

Robin Giles, Chairman St Just in Roseland Parish Council

Roseland Visitor Centre

Tourist Information

Welcome to the Roseland Visitor Centre which is situated in the centre of St Mawes near to the entrance to the main car park.

We are helped by a fantastic team of volunteers and are open all year around on weekdays; opening hours can vary depending on staff availability so please check on our website or social media for times (and see the notice displayed on our door).

We have leaflets for both the Roseland and beyond to help you plan your visit, however long or short. The team can provide detailed information on local attractions and how to get around the area. Nothing can beat their local knowledge and they can also advise on such things as local ferry cancellations, seasonal beach dog bans and give helpful tips on footpath routes, where to visit, where to stay and where to eat.

We stock a good range of maps, guides and books together with local bus and ferry timetables. We also provide discount vouchers for the Fal River ferries and boat trips.

We can provide help with booking accommodation and can help you to create the perfect itinerary for your visit.

For both locals and visitors, we can deal with bookings for the tennis court in St Mawes and for the many and varied trips run by Roseland Community Transport. We are also able to take bookings for any event being run by Cornish Riviera Box Office.

Please do not hesitate to call into the Roseland Visitor Centre, or contact us by telephone or email, if you require any further information about St Mawes and the Roseland Peninsula.

Millennium Function Room

The Millennium Function Room is situated above the Roseland Visitor Centre. During the school holidays we host our very talented local art groups and individual artists for exhibitions and sales of their beautiful work. We have been delighted to welcome St Mawes Art Group to the Millennium Rooms for their weekly sessions and extremely popular exhibitions since the premises were built in 2001.

The Group was founded in 1945, 76 years ago, by arguably the finest painter to come out of the village, war artist Charles Pears. It was a group established for both professional artists and for those who paint purely for the love of it, to provide opportunities for them to exhibit and sell their work.

Look out too for events held here as part of the spring Roseland Festival, and also one off talks by local Heritage Groups and wildlife groups, to name a few. Keep an eye on our website and local noticeboards for dates and further information.

When not in use for exhibitions, a number of local groups use the space for activities such as yoga, pilates, art classes and bridge (St Mawes Bridge Club).

One of our regular hirers is Jenny Ella Yoga. All of her yoga and pilates classes are drop-in classes and take place on Tuesday and Sunday mornings. For details see www.jennyellayoga.com or email jennyellayoga@gmail.com. Visitors are always welcome; ask at Roseland Visitor Centre for more details about these and any new classes which may start.

If you need to have some quiet space while on holiday with access to the internet – we have a small room available for hire. Please contact the Clerk for details.

The Function Room itself is a light bright airy space ideal for classes, staff training, lectures and meetings and can seat up to 50 people. There is a small kitchen suitable for making tea and coffee. There is ample parking nearby in the main car park and the building is equipped for disabled access and has a hearing loop, screen and projector. Free Wifi is available to hirers of the space.

For more information on hiring this room please contact the Parish Clerk.

St Mawes

St Mawes is the principal and largest village on the Roseland Peninsula. An important port in medieval times, Henry VIII had St Mawes Castle, still beautifully preserved, built to protect Falmouth Harbour. The village found favour with the early Victorian holidaymakers, not least due to the mild climate and air quality, characteristics which still attract visitors to the area today.

The village has a picturesque harbour with a small fishing fleet; until the early 1900s fishing was a major occupation, particularly for pilchards. Supplies were needed for the fishermen and their families so small businesses, such as chandlers, boot and shoemakers, groceries and of course public houses, thrived.

Today the village has a small but well stocked supermarket, bakery, butcher, gift shops, and galleries. You will also find a range of pubs, cafes and restaurants, plus holiday accommodation, to suit all tastes. For children of all ages the Recreation Ground offers a Tennis Court (bookable at the Roseland Visitor Centre), a Skate Park, Zip Wire, Eco Hut, Woodland Trail, and Family Area as well as traditional play equipment.

There are two fine beaches, one at each end of the village, with a range of water sports on offer. Kayaks and small boats are available to hire at the Quay, from which the Fal River ferries also depart. The village is also home to St Mawes Sailing Club where a warm welcome awaits.

Lamorran House Garden is a four acre subtropical, Italianate inspired garden at the top of the village. A garden of many levels, it is situated on a south facing slope with far reaching views across to St Anthony Head and beyond. The garden remains frost free in all but the most severe winters and therefore a wide range of plants from all over the world will grow, creating something of a plantsperson's paradise. The gardens are open twice a week from April to September (check their website for details). There is an admission charge and dogs are not permitted. Unfortunately due to the nature of the site it is unsuitable for wheelchairs, and those with limited mobility may find that they are only able to access the upper levels of the gardens. Teas, coffees and light refreshments are available.

The Castle is set in landscaped grounds with beautiful outward looking views over Falmouth Bay and the Carrick Roads. It is managed by English Heritage and there is an entrance charge for non-members. There is plenty of car parking (cost refunded on entry to the Castle) and picnics are welcome in the grounds. Due to the nature of the site with some slopes and steep drops wheelchair access is limited. Dogs are welcome on their leads. You will find Bear Cornwall in the car park, a 1960's Citroen HY Van, from which speciality coffee and cakes are served.

BOAT TRIPS from ST MAWES

ST MAWES FERRY \\ 7 days a week \\ Year round

"Connecting St Mawes and the Roseland to the bustling maritime town of Falmouth"

One of Cornwall's most popular boat trips, it carries over 162,000 passengers a year on the 2.8 mile route and is an absolute must for anyone visiting Cornwall

St Mawes — Falmouth

PLACE FERRY \\ 7 days a week \\ Apr-Oct

Falriver CORNWALL

St Anthony Headland

One of the most popular trips from St Mawes is to take the Place Ferry from the quay across to Place Manor. If you are making a return trip collect discount vouchers from Roseland Visitor Centre before setting out. Looking back across to St Mawes from Place gives a vista which you won't be able to see from within the village itself.

There are a number of footpaths on the headland which will give you a choice of circular walks.

The most popular route is to turn right from the ferry and follow the footpath to the lane. Turn left up the lane and after about 300 metres watch out for the footpath on the right which will take you behind Place Manor, making sure you call in to the lovingly restored St Anthony's Church.

The coastal path, which is well signed, continues to the lighthouse (which was used in the filming of the children's programme, Fraggle Rock) (toilets available here). From the lighthouse continue along the coastal path. Note: sections of the route are near to cliff edges. Always stay on the path and observe any signs which indicate cliff instability. This is particularly important in the area around Porthbeor.

When you reach Towan Beach (Porth Farm) leave the coastal path, turn inland, cross the road and the footpath continues from the rear of the car parking field along the creekside and back to the ferry.

It depends on your own walking speed, photo stops and rests to enjoy the view but you should allow at least four hours to fully appreciate this seven mile walk.

As an alternative, upon reaching Towan Beach continue along the coastal path until you reach Portscatho. From New Road you can catch the bus back to St Mawes; call in and see us at Roseland Visitor Centre to check the departure points and times before setting out.

Villages on The Roseland

A visit to St Just in Roseland, just 2 miles from St Mawes, is a must, with its 13th century Church, tidal creek setting and beautifully kept sub-tropical grounds; visitors are always given a warm welcome. Sir John Betjeman described it as being "to many people the most beautiful churchyard on earth". It is possible to walk there from St Mawes (see page 23). St Just also has a thriving village hall and children's playground.

On the east side of the Roseland Portscatho was once famous for pilchard fishing; it still retains a small active fishing fleet. Dine at the popular Plume of Feathers. There is a small shop and post office, and galleries along with public car parking. Gerrans grew as a farming community at the top of the hill above Portscatho. The church spire can be seen for miles around and is a well known landmark to those on land and sea.

There is access to breathtaking cliff, creek, country and beach walks from both villages. Gerrans has a local Heritage Centre at the Old Forge which contains a wealth of information on the history of the area. There is a squash court in Gerrans, behind the Royal Standard public house, and a public car park.

Further east is the village of Veryan famous for its 5 round houses, built around 200 years ago and surrounded by local folklore. Many say they were round so that there were no corners in which the devil could hide; in reality they were a show of wealth, the land owner having them built at the entrances to "his village". Elerkey Café and Gallery in Veryan, Veryan Galleries at Veryan Green and Melinsey Mill a mile towards St Mawes are all worthy of a visit.

Portloe is a delightful fishing village with a tiny working harbour sheltered by high cliffs, popular with walkers.

Tucked away inland are the sleepy villages of Philleigh and Ruan Lanihorne. Both have good pubs and interesting churches. The tidal creek at Ruan Lanihorne is a bird lover's paradise while leafy lanes and woods provide tranquil walks.

A thriving port before the river silted up, Tregony's wide main street features a restored clock tower and good pub and the village is often called the "gateway to The Roseland". Tregony Gallery holds a series of exhibitions throughout the year.

Getting around The Roseland

Why not leave the car behind, even if only for one day? There are other ways to get around giving you time to enjoy the scenery whilst being more environmentally aware. You can plan some wonderful combinations of walks, boat trips and public transport.

St Mawes and the Roseland peninsula are almost entirely surrounded by water – make the most of this by taking a trip on one of the Fal River Ferries. Enjoy the varied water sports such as kayaking, canoeing, sailing, windsurfing or paddle boarding. If you don't have your own equipment speak to Mark at St Mawes Kayaks on the quay.

The St Mawes Passenger Ferry provides a regular pedestrian link from St Mawes to Falmouth, operational year round, seven days a week.

Place Ferry is a small seasonal passenger ferry which offers a regular service between St Mawes and Place from Good Friday to October, allowing visitors to explore St Anthony Head and to enjoy the beaches and circular walks on the headland (see page 7). Trips to Trelissick Gardens (National Trust) and Truro (via Falmouth) are also available during the summer season.

King Harry Ferry is a vehicle ferry crossing the upper reaches of the Fal near Philleigh across to Feock. This service operates daily. If you have a large campervan check with Fal River before you travel.

For all the ferries, call in to Roseland Visitor Centre to pick up timetables and discount vouchers. There is a water taxi available from St Mawes (for details see page 18).

Public transport there is a bus service connecting St Mawes and the villages on the Roseland with Truro. Check with Roseland Visitor Centre for timetable details (note that the service at the time of printing is one every two hours and the service does not run late into the evening; fewer services run at weekends and on Bank Holidays).

Roseland Community Transport runs regular excursions to places of interest around Cornwall. They pick up from anywhere on the Roseland. Look out for notices locally; bookings can be made at the Roseland Visitor Centre.

Car parking

The Parish Council run car park in The Square, St Mawes TR2 5AG provides for both short and long stay parking. Tickets available cover 1 hour up to 1 week. Both ticket machines accept debit/credit cards or coins (no coppers nor notes). Change can be obtained from the Roseland Visitor Centre or the Car Park Office when open. All tickets must be clearly displayed in your vehicle. Annual permits are available – ask for details at Roseland Visitor Centre. There are no designated campervan spaces in the car park. However, you are welcome to park across two adjacent car spaces provided payment is made for two spaces. Coach bays are available and are strictly for use by coaches.

Charges – 1 Hour - £1.00, 1-2 Hours - £2.50, 2-4 Hours - £3.50, All Day (08.00 to 18.00 hours)- £5.00, Overnight - (18.00 to 08.00 Hours) - £1.00, 24 Hours - £6.00, 48 Hours - £12.00, 72 Hours - £18.00, 96 Hours - £24.00, 1 Week (concession) - £30.00

Disabled parking spaces are available. Please refer to https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/transport-and-streets/parking/disabled-parking/disabled-parking-on-street-and-car-park-rules-for-parking/ for up to date information on current regulations. There is limited additional parking on The Quay, St Mawes and also some on street parking but most of this is subject to time/duration restrictions. Check the notices before leaving your vehicle to avoid penalties. Out and about on the Roseland there are small car parks in most of the villages, some free of charge, some charged. There are also beach and walkers' car parks throughout the area.

Going on foot!

The Roseland is a paradise for walkers. Take a picnic and a whole day to enjoy a varied circular walk, or if time is short strolling just a mile or two will be equally enjoyable. Being a peninsula there are a variety of coastal, creekside and inland routes, with spectacular views from the higher ground.

We have maps and walking books and leaflets at Roseland Visitor Centre. Our staff and volunteers can provide more details, such as accessibility of gates, stiles, terrain and even where it might be muddy! They'll also know where you can stop for refreshments, the best viewpoints and where you can access beaches.

Beaches on The Roseland

Beaches on the Roseland are many and varied from sandy to pebbly, some with rock pools, some with easy access, others off the beaten track and secluded. St Mawes has two very good family beaches, Tavern and Summers Beach, one on either side of the harbour. Both are excellent for swimming and the southerly aspect makes them ideal for sunbathing. Small beaches are accessible from the footpath between St Mawes and St Just in Roseland.

Head to St Anthony Head for National Trust beaches. Great Molunan, is a 15 minute walk from the lighthouse car park (where there are toilets). This secluded sandy cove is accessible from the coastal footpath or by boat. Porthbeor on the opposite side of the headland is only accessible by boat due to the instability of the cliffs. The beach is secluded and very quiet with rocky areas exposed at low tide. Towan Beach is a beautiful long sandy beach with rock pools at low tide. The National Trust provides car parking.

In Portscatho village Tatums Beach is a small rocky beach with sandy patches. 10 minutes' walk from the main car park is Porthcurnick Beach, a sandy safe family beach, with rock pools. This is a very popular beach with a beach café and toilets. A five minute walk from here is the Rosevine Hotel open to non-residents for lunch, afternoon tea and dinner (see our St Mawes and the Roseland map for a discount voucher).

Carne and Pendower, owned by the National Trust, are wide sandy beaches which form one long expanse of sand at low tide. There are toilets and car parking at each end of the beach and The Quarterdeck at the Nare Hotel is open all day for light refreshments.

Further afield, Portholland has a tiny cove with rock pools. Porthluney Beach, Caerhays is a privately owned secluded family beach with an expanse of golden sand, parking and a beach side café.

Seaside safety

- There are no lifeguards on our beaches
- Look out for any safety notices before entering the water
- Don't swim off headlands and be wary of undertow currents
- Don't let children go out on inflatable airbeds or dinghies
- Whenever possible get a friend to swim with you or keep an eye on you
- Don't climb on cliffs or dig into cliff faces; they may collapse and bury you
- Before walking along a stretch of beach below cliffs check to see what the tide is doing as you may become cut off
- Observe any signs which indicate cliff instability

In the event of an emergency for coastal or sea rescue DIAL 999 and ask for the Coastguard

Dogs on the Roseland

Your dogs will love the Roseland and you will find that they are welcome almost everywhere. On our beaches dogs are currently welcome year round without their leads as follows:

- From St Just in Roseland to St Mawes Castle
- Idles Beach (down the slipway to the right of the Idle Rocks Hotel in St Mawes)
- Great Molunan near the lighthouse at St Anthony Head
- Towan Beach
- Porthcurnick Beach

There are seasonal restrictions in St Mawes on Summers and Tavern Beaches; see notices displayed. Also at Carne and Pendower check the notices as dogs are allowed but must be on their leads during the day in high season. Rules and regulations can change so if in doubt refer to www.cornwall.gov.uk

There are many miles of footpaths which your dogs will adore but:

- Keep them close or on their leads if you're near to cliffs
- The Roseland is an agricultural area so keep to the paths and always use a lead when passing through livestock fields
- Observe local notices relating to wildlife and nesting birds

Locals and visitors alike would all appreciate it if you "pick up" after your dog. We do have a lot of bins but they're not always as near as you might hope due to the accessibility for waste collection. Please resist the temptation to hang bags in trees, bushes or even on gate posts!

Your dog will be most welcome on his or her lead at St Mawes Castle. Further afield they are also allowed, on leads, at Heligan and in the outdoor areas at Eden Project. Well behaved dogs are allowed on all of the ferries but be aware that you may need to lift them aboard/ashore.

You will also be welcome at all Roseland pubs, either in the bar areas or in the gardens/ outdoor seating. Many accommodation providers also allow dogs to stay; there may be an additional charge so you should check when making a booking/enquiry. Please note dogs are NOT ALLOWED at Lamorran House Gardens.

And finally please remember, cars can get very hot very quickly even on overcast days. Occasionally, thankfully not often, very distressed dogs have been left shut in cars in our car parks.

Walk to St Just Church from St Mawes

If you only do one walk when visiting the Roseland we would always recommend the five mile circular walk from St Mawes to the beautiful church at St Just. Call in to the Roseland Visitor Centre and ask for a St Mawes and the Roseland map before you set off. Leaving the car park, turn right and walk along the front past the shops and on up to the Castle. Leave the main road here, keeping the Fal estuary immediately to your left. The quiet private road becomes the footpath which continues through grassy meadows to Pasco's thriving boatyard. Keeping the water immediately to your left follow the path beyond the last boat shed which will bring you out at the secluded creekside church.

Rest here and maybe enjoy a delicious lunch, cake or a cream tea at Miss V's; you'll find her just above the church by the car parks.
To return to St Mawes you can either retrace your steps along the coast or take the higher route along the ridge to enjoy far reaching views out to sea and across the Carrick Roads to Falmouth and beyond. This upper route is signed "To St Mawes Road" opposite the lych gate (toilets are here too) and involves a moderate climb. Following the well-trodden field paths parallel to the road you emerge at the water tower at the top of St Mawes and can then take quiet back roads down to the village.

If you'd like to use the bus to halve the distance it's best to take the bus from St Mawes and ask to get off at the turning for St Just Church (the drivers will know where that is!). You then walk downhill to the church and then take either the ridge or creekside route back to St Mawes.

Welcome to our essential guide to where to stay on the Roseland. Most properties listed have been graded or inspected by the AA, Visit England or a recognised inspection scheme. For those that are not graded we have, for your safety, as a minimum ensured that they have completed fire risk assessments and have public liability insurance. So whatever your taste and budget you will find what you're looking for, whether it is a top-class hotel with all the facilities, a friendly guest house, the independence of self-catering or the freedom of camping – you'll be spoilt for choice. Details are correct at the time of going to print. Roseland Visitor Centre accepts no liability or responsibility and visitors must rely on their own enquiries.

Gradings and Inspections Schemes Explained

Graded or inspected properties have been inspected by:

- The AA – www.theaa.com/hotel-services/ratings-and-awards
- Visit England – www.visitengland.com/plan-your-visit/visitengland-quality-schemes
- A recognised inspection scheme – these are run by local tourism associations and businesses to ensure tourism accommodation providers meet minimum standards to make premises legal, safe, clean and green.

There are separate grading/rating systems for serviced accommodation such as guest houses and hotels as well as self catering and holiday and touring parks.
Some establishments listed may have recently applied to be graded/inspected and are therefore awaiting assessment – these establishments will show 'Award pending'.

A quick guide to star ratings:

1★ – simple, practical, no frills
2★★ – well presented and well run
3 ★★★ – good level of quality and comfort
4 ★★★★ – excellent standard throughout
5★★★★★ – exceptional standard with a degree of luxury

Gold and Silver Awards

Gold and Silver awards celebrate accommodation establishments which outperform in their category, offering exceptional quality within their star rating. The awards help guests find special places where the hosts "go the extra mile".

Quality in Tourism

This award focusses on the needs of owners and customers, regular assessments of quality is a key factor. For further information see:

www.qualityintourism.com

Quality in Cornwall

This award provides visitors with confidence to book safe in the knowledge that the accommodation has been visited by an independent, trained inspector who has established that it has met the Legal, Safety and Cleanliness requirements specified by the scheme.
For further information please see:

www.qualityincornwall.com

AA Rosette Awards for Restaurants

AA inspectors annually award Rosettes to restaurants for the quality of their food. Most star-rated hotels have their own restaurants and these are also inspected. Not all receive an AA Rosette award, but they will generally serve enjoyable food of a reasonable standard.

Access for All

There is an ongoing commitment to improve access for everyone. If you have any particular requirements we advise you to specify these when making your enquiry. For full details of accessibility facilities provided by local accommodation, information in alternative formats and other services, please contact the provider direct.
